

Gracie the Wonder Dog!

Chapter 1

Once upon a time, there was a dog not much like any other dog. She was found at the dog pound. She was very lonesome and sad. All the dogs were mean to her because she looked different. One day a rather nice person looked at her and liked her. She looked very lonesome and sad without a friend in the world. As they stared at each other and knew they would be best friends. So he asked how much she was. And the person said she's a very unusual dog and no one wants her. You can have her for free and if she's any trouble bring her back and she'll be put down.

Chapter 2

But Gracie was never a problem. She was very good dog. She never broke anything. She never barked, except when strangers came near. Her and the man took lots of walks, and played in the park. They even went camping together. She was the best dog in the world. But one day something unusual happened. She started flapping her ears. She became light headed. And her owner thought that it very strange. The next thing she knew, she was flying around the room. The owner took her to a dog show. But Gracie would not fly.

Chapter 3

Then the Owner realized that she would only fly for him. Gracie's wish had been granted! Because Gracie would only fly for him he loved Gracie more. And one day Gracie had magic puppies. But the man never told anyone. He knew he would have to keep it a secret for along time. And they lived happily ever after!

The end

Written by:

Ruth Chrisman
Uncle Mike.